

8 Weeks

- Remove unnecessary items from your attic, basement, storage shed etc.
- Use things you can't move, such as frozen foods and cleaning supplies.
- Obtain information about your new community.
- Secure a floor plan of your new residence and decide what household items you want to keep.
- Start a possessions inventory. Don't forget your child's video game system it will only make life harder on you.
- Solicit estimates from at least three moving companies.
- Call your homeowners insurance agent to find out to what degree your move is covered.
- Create a file for documenting all moving papers and receipts.
- Arrange to transfer your children's school records.

6 Weeks

- Contact the IRS and/or your CPA for tax-deductible information.
- Evaluate your possessions inventory. Can you donate anything? Do you need it all?
- Notify your friends, relatives, professionals, creditors, subscriptions, etc.
- Subscribe to a local paper in your new community and familiarize yourself with local government, community, and social news and activities.
- Begin the off-site storage process (if applicable).
Locate high-quality health-care professionals and hospitals in your new location.
- Complete a change of address via post-office cards or an online service for the following:
Banks; Charge cards; Religious organizations;
Doctors/dentist; Relatives and friends; Income tax bureau/Social Security Administration/union; Insurance broker/lawyer/CPA/ stockbroker; Magazines; Post office; and Schools.
- Clean your closets.
- Hold a moving/garage sale or donate items to charities.
Choose a mover.
- Contact your mover to make arrangements and inquire about insurance coverage.
- If relocating due to a job, contact your employer to see what costs, if any, they will cover.

4 Weeks

- Start packing!
- Send furniture, drapes and carpets for repair/cleaning as needed.
- Gather auto licensing and registration documents, medical, dental and school records, birth certificates, wills, deeds, stock and other financial documentation, etc.
- Contact gas, electric, oil, water, telephone, cable TV, and trash collection companies for service disconnect/connect at your old and new addresses. Also ask for final readings.
- Request refunds on unused homeowner's insurance, security deposit with landlord, and prepaid cable service.
- Notify your gardener, snow removal service, and pool service (if applicable).
- Contact insurance companies (auto, homeowner's, medical, and life) to arrange for coverage in your new home.

3 Weeks

- Make your travel plans.
- Arrange to close current bank accounts and open accounts in your new locale.
- Notify the heir to your oil fortune (if necessary).
- Notify your state's Motor Vehicle Bureau of your new address.
- Arrange for childcare on moving day.
- NOTE: For apartment dwellers, reserve the elevator for pickup and/or delivery dates.

2 Weeks

- Arrange special transport for your pets and plants.
- Service your car for the trip.
- Contact your moving company and review arrangements for your move.

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

1 Week

- Prepare detailed directions and an itinerary with emergency numbers for your moving company.
- Settle outstanding bills with local retailers.
- Pick up dry cleaning, return library books
- Take pets to the veterinarian and get copies of their records.
- Drain gas and oil from power equipment.
- Give away plants not being moved.
- Cancel newspaper delivery.
- Buy two-weeks worth of medication and have your prescriptions forwarded to your new pharmacy.
- Buy traveler's checks.
- Make arrangements to pay for your move.

2-3 Days

- If you're not doing it yourself, have your mover pack.
- Defrost refrigerators and freezers.
- Consider gathering all valuables and giving them to family or friends to hold until the move is completed.
- Disconnect all major appliances.
- Contact your moving company for any updates.
- Pack first-night items and a survival kit. Keep them in separate boxes in your car.
- First Night Items: Sheets, Towels, Toiletries, Phone, Alarm Clock, Change of Clothes, and Flashlight.
- Mover's Survival Kit: Scissors, utility knife, coffee cups, instant coffee/tea or a coffee maker, water and soft drinks, snacks, paper plates, plastic utensils, paper towels, toilet paper, soap, pencils and paper, local phone book, masking and/or duct tape, trash bags, shelf liner, and aspirin or ibuprofen.

Moving Day!

- Be home to answer any questions your mover may have.
- Record all utility meter readings (gas, electric, and water).
Stay until your movers are finished.
- Complete information on the bill of lading and carefully read the document and the inventory sheet before signing it.
- Keep your copies of the bill of lading and inventory until your possessions are delivered, the charges are paid, and any claims are settled.
- Take one final look around to see if you forgot anything.
- Give movers the directions to your new home, and an emergency number where you can be reached during the move.

At Your New Home

- Unpack first-night items and mover's survival kit.
- Be at the destination to welcome the movers and be on hand to answer any questions. After the job is completed, pay what is owed.
- The driver is obligated by law (a Federal requirement for interstate moves) to collect payment upon delivery.
- Scrutinize the unloading of your items and account for each one on your inventory sheet.
- Check promptly and carefully for any damaged or missing items.
- Place moving and other important documents in a safe place.
- Go to the post office and collect held mail.

Have any questions? Reach out at joanne@edgeofthebeach.com